Biography- Mara Barbini:

I was born in 2002 in Livorno, Italy. At the age of four, I entered the dance studio and haven't left until today. After studying in different dance schools in Italy I was admitted at the Zurich University of the Art in 2021.During this year I had the opportunity to be able to work with choreographers such as Dunja Jocic, Nadav Zelner,Didy Veldman and many more .
In this last year of university I am joining Scapino Ballet Rotterdam as an intern and joining the company in the production " Song of the dark forest" and "Origin".

Bachelor Project :

Title: The artistry behind the curtain

Behind the scenes, a dancer's journey is a careful and complex process that involves both physical and mental preparations. It all starts with an important warm-up routine to get the body ready for the upcoming performance. Moving beyond just the body, mental preparation becomes a big part of the process. As the performance gets closer, the dancer shifts to the routine of putting on makeup and costumes. This short film shows the careful work and dedication put into each moment, conducting in a journey that goes beyond just the physical aspects of dance, capturing the true essence of artistic expression.
