Bachelor of Arts in Theatre

Degree Programme Regulations (DPR BFA)

19 January 2022

Based on § 2 para. 3 of the Regulatory Framework for Bachelor's and Master's Degree Programmes at Zurich University of the Arts of 2 November 2021, the University Board hereby decrees:

A. General Provisions

§ 1. Subject

In addition to the Regulatory Framework for Bachelor's and Master's Degree Programmes at ZHdK, the Degree Programme Regulations (DPR) set here govern the Bachelor of Arts in Theatre.

§ 2. Programme Objective

- <sup>1</sup> The Bachelor of Arts in Theatre builds the artistic and scientific knowledge and skills needed to earn a first professional qualification and prepares for a master's degree in the respective field.
- <sup>2</sup> The standard qualification awarded on completion of the programme is a bachelor's degree.

§ 3. Majors in Theatre

- <sup>1</sup> The bachelor's degree programme comprises the following majors, each awarded 150 credits:
  - a. Major in Directing;
  - b. Major in Acting;
  - c. Major in Scenography;
  - d. Major in Theatre Education.

<sup>2</sup> The Annexes to these DPR describe the various majors in theatre.<sup>1</sup>

B. Admissions

§ 4. Admissions

Programme admissions are governed by the provisions of the Regulatory Framework.

§ 5. Admissions Process and Entrance Examination Committee

- <sup>1</sup> The admissions process comprises four stages:
  - a. The University Office establishes whether applicants meet the University's entrance requirements in terms of their previous education, additional requirements (in accordance with § 6), language skills and application documents;
  - b. Applications are reviewed to verify whether applicants fulfil the subject-specific admissions requirements;
  - c. Subject-specific aptitude test, which is conducted by the Entrance Examination Committee;
  - d. Admissions decision.

<sup>2</sup> The head of programme appoints an entrance examination committee for the first and second parts of the subject-specific aptitude test. The committee comprising a lecturer and at least one other person (professor or member of the teaching and research staff) from the respective major. For the majors in directing, acting and scenography, the committee responsible for the second part of the subject-specific aptitude test also includes an internal or external expert.

§ 6. Additional Admissions Requirements

- <sup>1</sup> The following age restrictions apply to the majors in theatre:
  - a. Major in Directing: at least 21 years of age;

- b. Major in Acting: at least 17 years of age;
- c. Major in Scenography: at least 18 years of age;
- d. Major in Theatre Education: at least 20 years of age.

<sup>2</sup>...<sup>3</sup>

§ 7. Evidence of Language Proficiency

<sup>1</sup> Students must provide evidence of a sufficient knowledge of the German language.

<sup>2</sup> Students may demonstrate an adequate knowledge of German in one of the following ways:

- a. Native speaker;
- b. German as a subject examined as part of their previous education (passed or at least grade 4)<sup>1</sup>;
- c. B2 certificate in German earned under the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

<sup>3</sup> Proof of the required language skills can be provided in the first two semesters. In this case, programme admission is subject to students providing evidence of their language proficiency at the latest by the end of their second semester. Students who fail to meet the language requirements may be expelled.

§ 8. Verification

<sup>1</sup> The University Office reviews the documents listed below to verify whether applicants meet the admissions requirements (previous education, additional requirements and language proficiency):

- a. Application form;
- b. Portfolio or preparatory task (as announced in the call for applications);
- c. Motivation letter;
- d. Previous educational certificates in accordance with the Regulatory Framework and with overarching legislation.

<sup>2</sup> Candidates may be requested to submit a medical certificate.

§ 9. Admission to the Subject-Specific Aptitude Test

Students who fulfil the requirements set out in § 8 and who have submitted the required documents are admitted to the subject-specific aptitude test.

§ 10. Subject-Specific Aptitude Test

<sup>2</sup> The first part of the aptitude test involves an assessment of the submitted documents. The positive assessment of these documents is a prerequisite for applicants being invited to the second part of the aptitude test.

<sup>3</sup> The second part of the subject-specific aptitude test consists of a preliminary examination and an entrance examination. Candidates who pass the preliminary examination are admitted to the entrance examination. No preliminary examination is conducted for admission to the Major in Scenography.

<sup>4</sup> Programme admission is subject to the positive overall assessment of both the submitted documents and the subject-specific aptitude test.

<sup>5</sup> Failed subject-specific aptitude tests may be repeated only once for any degree programme.

§ 11. Assessment Criteria

The following criteria are used to assess candidate aptitude:

- a. Developmental capacity/artistic potential;
- b. Quality of portfolio/work sample;
- c. Motivation, interest and curiosity;
- d. Independence and personal responsibility;
- e. Reflective thinking skills and self-assessment;
- f. Critical reflection skills;
- g. Teamwork and communication skills, interpersonal and social skills.

C. Student Performance

§ 12. Credit Requirements

The number of credits required to pass the various majors in theatre are set out in the respective programme structures (see Annexes).
