Master of Arts in Music Pedagogy

Degree Programme Regulations (DPR MMP)

13 December 2023

Based on § 2 para. 3 of the Regulatory Framework for Bachelor's and Master's Degree Programmes at Zurich University of the Arts of 2 November 2021, the University Board hereby decrees:

A. General Provisions

1. Subject

In addition to the Regulatory Framework for Bachelor's and Master's Degree Programmes at ZHdK (RF), the Degree Programme Regulations (DPR) set out here govern the Master of Arts in Music Pedagogy.

2. Programme Objective

<sup>1</sup> The Master of Arts in Music Pedagogy provides in-depth training in teaching music to various target groups and enables students to develop an individual artistic profile. Programme objectives include building pedagogic and didactic skills, an in-depth exploration of their individual artistic and musical development and the development of an independent artistic personality.

<sup>2</sup> The Major in School Music II leads to a Master's degree in School Music II and an Upper Secondary Teaching Diploma in Music in accordance with the regulations of the Swiss Conference of Cantonal Ministers of Education (EDK).<sup>1</sup> Programme contents are based on the regulations for vocational and educational training.

<sup>3</sup> The master's programme leads to a professional qualification.

3. Majors in Music Pedagogy

<sup>1</sup> The master's degree programme comprises the following majors:

- a. Major in Analysis and Teaching (90 Credits);
- b. Major in Elementary Music Education (90 Credits);
- c. Major in Instrumental/Vocal Education (90 Credits);
- d. Major in Jazz and World Music (90 Credits);
- e. Major in Pop (90 Credits);
- f. Major in Rhythmics (90 Credits);
- g. Major in School Music I (90 Credits);
- h. Major in School Music II (150 Credits).

<sup>2</sup> The Annexes to these DPR describe the MA majors in Music Pedagogy.

B. Admissions

4. Admissions

Programme admissions are governed by the provisions of the Regulatory Framework (RF).

5. Admissions Process and Entrance Examination Committee

- a. The University Office establishes whether applicants meet the University's admissions requirements (i.e. previous education, fulfilment of additional requirements, language proficiency and application documents);

---

<sup>1</sup> Regulations on the Recognition of Teaching Diplomas for Teaching at Primary, Lower Secondary and Upper Secondary Schools of the Swiss Conference of Cantonal Ministers of Education (EDK) of 28 March 2019.

DPR MMP

- b. Applications are reviewed to verify whether applicants fulfil the admissions requirements for the subject-specific aptitude test;
- c. The Entrance Examination Committee verifies whether applicants fulfil the additional requirements and conducts the subject-specific aptitude test;
- d. Admissions decision.

<sup>2</sup> The Head of Programme appoints an Entrance Examination Committee, comprising at least one person (professor or lecturer) from the degree programme and the Head of Major.

§ 5a. Additional requirements for admission<sup>3</sup>

Admission to the Master's programme in the Major School Music II is granted to candidates who hold the following qualifications:

- a. a Bachelor's degree in Music or
- b. an at least equivalent degree from a recognised or accredited higher education institution.

6. Evidence of Language Proficiency

- a. Native speaker;
- b. German as a subject that was examined as part of their previous education (passed or at least grade 4);
- c. B2 certificate in German that was earned under the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).
- d. ...<sup>4</sup>

<sup>3</sup> Proof of the required language skills must be provided in the first two semesters. In this case, programme admission is subject to students providing evidence of their language proficiency at the latest by the end of their second semester. Students who fail to meet the language requirements may be expelled.

7. Verification

The University Office reviews the documents listed below to verify whether applicants meet the admissions requirements (previous education, additional requirements, language proficiency):

- a. Application form;
- b. Portfolio (Major in Jazz & World Music and the Major in Pop, incl. video),
- c. Motivation letter;
- d. Bachelor's degree in accordance with the RF, as well as previous education certificates in accordance with the RF and overarching legislation,
- e. Applicants seeking to earn an Upper Secondary Teaching Diploma in Music are required to submit a current extract from the criminal record<sup>1</sup>.

8. Admission to Subject-Specific Aptitude Test

Students who fulfil the requirements set out in § 7 and who have submitted the required application documents are admitted to the subject-specific aptitude test.

9. Subject-Specific Aptitude Test

<sup>2</sup> The first part of the aptitude test involves the assessment of the application documents. The positive assessment of these documents is a prerequisite for applicants being invited to the second part of the aptitude test.

<sup>3</sup> The second part of the aptitude test comprises:

- a. Major in Analysis and Teaching: admissions interview,
- b. Major in Elementary Music Pedagogy, Major in Instrumental/Vocal Education, Major in Rhythmics, Major in School Music I, Major in School Music II: an artistic-musical performance, an admissions interview and a pedagogy exam.
- c. Major in Jazz & World Music, Major in Pop: an artistic-musical performance and an admissions interview.

<sup>4</sup> Programme admission is subject to the positive overall assessment of the application documents and of candidates' performance at the subject-specific aptitude test.

<sup>5</sup> Candidates who fail their subject-specific aptitude test may repeat this only once for any degree programme.
